"The Demon of Insomnia"

If you have ever known the inserty of lying awake in bed, while you were easer for sleep, there is an article in our next SUNDAY MAGAZINE that you will find one of the most valuable you have ever real. In a mile is a demon, as any one who has suffered from it will tell you with interactipliasss. The victims of it who read the article by Dr. Edwin F. Bowers in our next issue are likely to commit parts of it to memory. It seems to be about the wrest, satest, and most interesting article on in-

Dr. Bowers marshals his scientific facts and discoveries with the greatest care. He always speaks with authority; but he presents the scientific knowledge in a way that makes some of the scientific men gasts, because they are so unitsed to seeing their profound discoveries presented in a simple, forceful, collequial way that any of us can understand. That is why Dr. Bowers' articles are so interesting, and why they are doing so much good.

EDGAR ALLEN FORBES has wonderful gifts. He has patience to col-lect facts, imagination and vision to understand what these facts mean, and colerable orthusiasts in prescriting both.

THROUGH THE PANAMA CANAL TO THE FUTURE is the last the course of the Great Dir it, and it exemplates Mr. Forbes' quali-tic life seconds dull custain: but the article itself has exertenced in the kind of exertement that gives the reader thrills while he is also original
